

THE DIFFERENCE YOU MAKE

could pay for someone to join one of our specialist online activities helping them to manage their physical and mental wellbeing from home.

£10

could pay for someone living with a lung condition to take part in a clinical trial that is developing vital new treatments, by paying for their travel to hospital.

helps nearly 18 people to raise their voices and call on the government to improve respiratory care through one of our campaigns.

helps us to answer one enquiry through our Helpline from our team of Healthcare Advisors, Respiratory Nurse Specialists and Physiotherapists.

£344

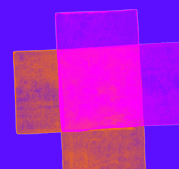

could go towards a day of the best research to find new solutions to the biggest challenges in respiratory prevention, diagnosis, treatment and management.

£1,250

can pay for an update of one of our health information resources. This is vital, to ensure people can access up-to-date information that they can trust about their condition.
